Alt Pop artist combines uplifting dark melancholic songs with a futurist live and electronic soundtrack.

Giudi creates concepts within important topics such as spirituality, social activism, mental health and queer feminism, encourages dialogues in today's society.

The concept of her latest single "Jezinky", she used the mythical woods-dwelling creatures from Czech folklore - as a metaphor to the fears inside all of us - and to everyone's surprise it made an appearance in the Czech Eurovision Finals winning huge support. Giudi represented czech music scene at festival Waves in Vienna, Live At Hearth Southeast in Sweden and will take part at Eurosonic 2022.

Live Performance Czech TV 2022

For her performance at the online edition of ESNS 2022, Giudi works with a psychosomatic approach creating an interesting dialogue that expands her artistry. For this live video performance Giudi collaborated with famous czech fine artist Pavel Korbicka and Telegraph Gallery.
